

Duty to Manage Course: One day course Extension to Asbestos Awareness

Course Syllabus

- Properties, risks and the effects on health of asbestos exposure
- Types, uses and likely occurrence of asbestos and ACM's in buildings
- How to avoid the risks from asbestos
- Outline of Legislation relating to asbestos
- Understanding the requirements for asbestos surveys and the results
- Asbestos Management Plans
- Managing asbestos projects

Learning Objectives

The Duty to Manage Course: Extension to Asbestos Awareness is for those requiring an overview of managing asbestos containing materials in buildings.

On successful completion of this course, delegates should be able to:

- Be familiar with the types, uses, risks and likely occurrences of asbestos in buildings and ,where appropriate, items of plant;
- Be familiar with the requirements set out in CAR 2012 with regards to responsibilities;
- Understand the requirements for asbestos surveys and different types of surveys;
- Be familiar with the results of an asbestos survey, how to decipher the information contained within the asbestos survey report;
- Understand the need for an asbestos management plan and its use;
- Defining work with ACMs that are Non-Licensable and Licensable (inc>NNLW);
- Managing asbestos projects.

Assessment = (15 questions)

Delegate ratio: Maximum Tutor: Delegate ratio is 1:12

In-Company Training: If you would like your Organisation's standard asbestos procedures covered during the training session, please provide to Enquin beforehand.

8 CPD hours available for this course

